

Arif Hüdai KÖKEN

He was born in 22.10.1981 in Osmaniye/ TURKEY. He completed his primary and secondary education in Osmaniye respectively in Ataturk Primary School, Bahçeli Collage and Mehmet Akif Ersoy High School (English Programme). After graduation from Faculty of Medicine at Istanbul University in 2009, he started compulsory service as Emergency Service Physician at the State Hospital of Bingöl province, Genc District. Until the year 2011, he was respectively in charge of Resident Physician of Yedisu District of Bingöl Province, Ambulance Physician of Yedisu 112 Emergency Health Services Station and Vice President of Health Group of Yedisu District of Bingöl province. Until the year 2013, he was in charge of Ambulance Physician of Adana 112 Emergency Health Services Station No. 1, responsible physician and advisory physician of Adana 112 Emergency Health Services Command Control Center (Call Center). As of June 2013, he started to work as a research assistant at Ahi Evran University, Faculty of Medicine, Department of History of Medicine and Ethics. He is Phd student and still working as a research assistant at Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine, Department of History of Medicine and Ethics in the name of Ahi Evran University.